Garden News

The plants are doing very well with the intense sun and rainy days. Lots of helpers have been working inside and outside of the garden to tame the weeds and prune the bushes and trees. Monica has once again been able to get workers weekly to help out. She is sprucing up the grounds in anticipation of the Festival on August 11th. You may have already noticed the sign at the corner of Atchison and 20th. Rachelle Hine-White and the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority’s committee Targeting Green Spaces have been consistent in mowing the lawn, weed wacking and planting and tending the vegetables. Kim and Nicole have come several evenings to keep the raised beds neat and pathways mowed. Looking ahead to the upcoming Festival, we hope to offer some tiny tasty treats with help from Cameron Smith, utilizing some of the summer crop. The paw paw fruits are ripening on the trees outside the garden and the edible fruit is surprisingly good.
