BREAD EVENTS

Monday, May 6 –Join hundreds of other concerned people in Franklin County to hold officials accountable on which issues BREAD is working. Because of St. Dominic's input from the listening sessions and powerful testimony from our own Barb Chilton, eldercare is BREAD's issue this year. The new Columbus City Schools Superintendent, Talisa Dixon, has confirmed her attendance on May 6! The Nehemiah Action takes place at Celeste Center on the state fair grounds from 6:30-8:30 pm. We will carpool and childcare is available. Get a ticket from a BREAD member to be counted with St. Dominic if you have not received one. Our parish goal is 100 people! Carolyn Borden, Charlene Brown, Wes Fullen, Juana Hostin and Felicia McGimpsey.

"For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..." (Philippians 3:8)

The first commandment says that we should not put other gods before the Lord. Sharing all of our gifts, our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support Church needs help us keep God first in everything. It helps us from putting other gods before God. It helps us to use our gifts for the glory of God and not our own honor. Learn how to share your gifts and Catholic legacy by supporting your parish and contact the Catholic Foundation.
