Get updates on the other issues on which BREAD continues to work. St. Dominic was instrumental in the eldercare issue last year, creating restorative justice circles for youth and reducing school suspensions, and is still pressing for municipal id. This is your chance to make your voice heard.

Thank you to all the St. Dominic Church Family who attended or donated towards the Josef L. Banks Memorial Scholarship in 2019. This summer we presented the first scholarship to Yondris Ferguson, a Columbus Africentric School graduate. He is attending The Ohio State University and hopes to become an Architect. We hope you can join us this year for a fun evening to continue the Scholarship in Joe's memory.

Join the Banks Family at the Halloween Party on Saturday, October 26, 2019 from 8-11:30 p.m. at the St. Dominic Parish Center. This is a fundraiser for the Josef L. Banks Memorial Scholarship to provide financial assistance to high school students entering college. Education was important to Joe, and Linda Waddell and the Banks Family want to continue his legacy of mentoring young adults and furthering their education.

Costumes are encouraged, and there will be a costume contest with prizes, Light refreshments, wine, beer and non-alcoholic drinks will be provided. Also, there will cake in honor of Joe's birthday (October 29). You are welcome to bring your own food and beverages. A DJ will provide music with everyone expected to dance.

Tickets are $25 each and can be purchased online through Eventbrite, <https://jlbankshalloween.eventbrite.com> or admission with cash at the door. Online ticket purchases are preferred for planning purposes. This party is open to ages 21 and up. You can also contact Linda or Juana after church.

The celebration will feature special musical selections from St. Anthony's Multicultural Choir, dancing, refreshments, crafts. The thought-provoking art exhibit I AM A MAN, and a first look at original artwork of our modern saint. We will also look back at fifteen wonderful years of being open to all!

Family Rosary Day will be celebrated this year at 3:00 p.m., on Sunday October 13, at St. Joseph Cathedral, 212 E. Broad St., Columbus, OH 43215.
