BREAD LISTENING SESSIONS

What concerns do you have that affect you, your family, your neighborhood, or your coworkers? The BREAD Team is hosting listening sessions after both masses on October 27. Get updates on the other issues on which BREAD continues to work. St. Dominic was instrumental in the eldercare issue last year, creating restorative justice circles for youth and reducing school suspensions, and is still pressing for municipal id. This is your chance to make your voice heard.

The Thanksgiving Basket Committee along with the Bahkita Dance Minstry will start collecting canned & dry goods. Turkeys are needed and we will ask for those to be donated at a later date. Your compassion has always been so true that this project has always been a success!! Love and thanks for helping our community.

Donated items should be taken to the Parish Hall. For additional information, contact Bunny Neal at 657-4336

CHILI COOK-OFF RESULTS

The annual St. Dominic cook-off was held on October 20 after the 11:30 MASS WITH OUR Teen Spirit selling desserts and drinks. Congratulations to the 2019 grand champion of chili Payton Pannell, first runners-up Nancy Hill McClary and Derrick James, and second runner-up Eric Pannell. All of these winners were first-time entrants! A big thank you goes out to the judges who sampled 21 different chilies: Chef Jason Johnson, our junior chef Cameron Smith and Natalie Poindexter. We were able to raise $400 for St. Dominic. Appreciation is given to all who made chili, brought cornbread and desserts, helped set up and clean up, and ate chili.

Feast Day Celebration

The annual celebration of our patron St. Martin de Porres is an event more meaningful this year as we celebrate the 15th Anniversary of the Martin de Porres Center! Join us on Sunday, November 3 from 2:00-4:00pm for a celebration of St. Martin's spit of compassion and inclusivity!

The celebration will feature special musical selections from St. Anthony's Multicultural Choir, dancing, refreshments, crafts. The thought-provoking art exhibit I AM A MAN, and a first look at original artwork of our modern saint. We will also look back at fifteen wonderful years of being open to all!

Thank you Teen Spirit member, Cameron and Nora and Nora's brother Nickolas for their help tearing out plants and weeds from the garden. Thanks also to Andre and Deneen for getting Teen Spirit involved.

The Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (DCCW) will host a morning of reflection on Monday, November 11, at St. Therese's Retreat Center, 5277 E. Broad Street, Columbus. Theme for the event is "Is Mary a Disciple Worthy of Imitation?" presented by Father Thomas Blau, OP, from Columbus' St Patrick Parish. Cost is $25, lunch included. Registration deadline is November 1. Registration form and additional information available at www.columbuscatholic.org/diocesancouncilofcatholicwomen. Contact DCCW President Katie Boesch, 614-228-8601.

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke18:14

Pride and ego is the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else, and your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God's abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.
