Free and open to all.

BREAD Research

A couple of months ago, the BREAD Team announced that the new issue that BREAD will work on this year is gun violence. The research committee is starting its research process by interviewing experts and decision makers on this topic. Part of this process is getting stories from people in the community like you to tell our leaders how gun violence has affected them. This research and stories not only provide personal testimonies but also helps us to narrow the issue to a problem statement and find a solution where we can collaborate with the decision makers. How has gun violence affected you or someone you know? Share your story with a BREAD team member and help us reduce gun violence in Columbus. Your BREAD team members are Charlene Brown, Carolyn Borden Collins, Wes Fullen Juana Hostin, and Felicia McGimpsey. Bread...rises.

International Table

It's time for the annual International Table to share cultural dishes on Sunday, March 1 after the 11:30 mass. Everyone is invited to participate by bringing a main dish, side, appetizer, or dessert from any country, region, or culture. Please bring your dish to the parish center in a crockpot or aluminum tin (if a hot item by 11:15 am on Sunday to the Parish Center.

You may also bring cultural items to display and wear international attire. See Michael or Juana Hostin to sign up or text 614-440-2099.

Share your volunteer time with the church as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist (EME's), EM's assist the clergy of the parish by helping to distribute Holy Communion at Mass. A short training session teaches ministers about the handling of the Eucharist and special situations that sometime arise. Ministers can choose the Mass times and how often they wish to serve.

Those who participate in this ministry should have a deep reverence for, and devotion to, the Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, as well as a desire to serve their brothers and sisters. Current ministers are asked to reach out to others in the community to join this ministry. Contact Lillian Jackson or Lynn Chavers.

Do you love to sing? If so, consider joining the St. Dominic choir. Whether you're a highly trained performer or you only sing in the shower, there's a place for you in our music ministry. All you need is a passion for worship and a willingness to learn. Please contact our choir director Mr. Vernon Hairston. (Contact information on the front of the bulletin)

Ash Wednesday is February 26, 2020. As Ambassador for Catholic Radio 820 AM, we are encouraging everyone to listen to various programs on the radio during lent. We are also encouraging people to display a magnetic sticker on their cars to show your support for Catholic Radio. These stickers are available in the front of the church on the south table.

We also have various prayer cards as well as fold outs on how to say the Rosary. You can also download the App for Catholic Radio to your phone.

If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Jeanne Braxton after service.

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." MATTHEW 5:20

The scribes and Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear-it's the love that you have in your heart will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules out of obligation, not love, does not put you on the path to heaven. Attending Mass on Sunday and the gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of a modern-day Pharisee.
