Real Presence, Real Future reflections: The Word of God
Alfred Akainyah, St. Anthony Parish & RPRF Commission Member

In Today’s Gospel, the 12 go out in pairs to spread the Good News. When they return, Jesus gathers them to a place of rest to lift their Spirits, but the people of the area arrive, hungry for the Good News, believing, that a word from God exceeds every need and raises anyone willing to believe above their circumstances!

We too, with Real Presence, Real Future, are called and entreated to bring the Good News to others in our words and deeds. We should have time for others and be open to unexpected demands, for this is the true meaning of discipleship.

To read more about how we are growing together in the life of faith and discipleship in the Diocese of Columbus, visit [Real Presence, Real Future.org](http://RealPresence, Real Future.org).

“He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” Mark 6:31

Do you spend time every day, alone in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some “alone” time with God.

How will you answer God’s call? One way is to your parish and contact The Catholic Foundation. Visit www.catholic-foundation.org/development for more information.
