Real Presence, Real Future reflections: Overcoming Anger
Joseph Zaino, St. Margaret of Cortona Parish & RPRF
Commission Member:

“The opposite of love isn’t anger, its apathy.” While this quote rings true, when the result of anger is un-love, we have reached into a sinful area just as we do when we treat our faith with little concern. Thankfully, we have the perfect role model in Christ. Paul speaks of the sinful results of anger in today’s second reading. The reaction of Jesus’ adversaries to Him in today’s gospel preclude the anger that will lead to His crucifixion. While anger is a natural emotion, each of us must work to channel it into greater reflections of Jesus.

“Get up and eat or the journey will be too much for you!” 1 Kings 19:7

God knows that committing to a stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need His help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist we join our sacrifice of the Holy Mass and receive the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.
