BREAD LISTENING SESSIONS

What concerns do you have that affect you, your family, your neighborhood, or your coworkers? The BREAD Team will be hosting listening sessions, and you have two opportunities to participate: 1) After mass on Sunday, September 19 at 12:30 pm (the BREAD team will have refreshments for participants) or 2) Virtually on Zoom on Monday, October 18 at 6:00 pm. You only need to attend one of the listening sessions. Get updates on the issues on which BREAD continues to work: affordable housing, jobs, police reform, juvenile justice, gun violence, and eldercare. There will also be question on the Care for Creation initiative on climate change. Because of you BREAD helped 300 families in Franklin County obtain affordable housing at the Nehemiah Action! Bread is how you can work for justice and live out our Catholic faith. For questions contact Charlene Brown, Carolyn Borden Collins, Wes Fullen, Juana Hostin or Felicia McGimpsey.

Classes for St. Dominic’s Parish School of Religion (PSR) begin Saturday Oct.2 from 10am to noon in the Parish Center but there is still time to register. PSR is for children in first through sixth grades including those preparing for First Communion, and we are also enrolling older students who need Confirmation. For information and registration forms, please email Charlene Brown, Director of Religious Education at dre.sdchrsj@gmail.com or leave a message with Deidre at the Parish Office, 614-252-5926, ext. 1.

The Black Catholic Men’s Conference is completely online this year, October 14-17.

=====
Third Sunday at 1:00 pm the African Community will celebrate Mass at St. Dominic.

=====
Mass Time: Please note St. Dominic has only one mass on Sundays at 11:30 a.m.

=====
Adoration: Adoration will be at St. Dominic every first and second Tuesday of the month at 5 to 6pm.

“Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.” Mark 9:41

We are made in God’s image and likeness. We tend to forget this. When tend to forget this. When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them? When others look at you, do they see the face of Jesus in you? When we realize that all lives matter to God, Then gratitude and generously become easier. Why? Because that is the way we are made! We are one Body of Christ: when one of us is hurting, all of us feel the pain.

Real Presence, Real Future reflections: The Joy of God’s Wisdom

Lori Dulin, Office of Catholic Schools

Today’s psalm, “The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart,” is an incredible reminder of how true joy lives deep within our heart. Christ’s precept to reveal Him to others is work that brings great joy. As each of us becomes fully formed, we are implored to share the Gospel message as missionary disciples. In that, we are faithful. In that, we impart His truth and wisdom. The message and the work are enduring and sanctify us as we love God with our whole heart and our neighbors as ourselves. The result: true, lasting joy and the great reward of heaven and eternal life!
