BREAD LISTENING SESSIONS

What concerns do you have that affect you, your family, your neighborhood, or your coworkers? The BREAD Team will be hosting a listening session, and you have an opportunity to participate: Virtually on Zoom on Monday, October 18 at 6:00 pm. Get updates on the issues on which BREAD continues to work: affordable housing, jobs, police reform, juvenile justice, gun violence, and eldercare. There will also be question on the Care for Creation initiative on climate change. Because of you BREAD helped 300 families in Franklin County obtain affordable housing at the Nehemiah Action! Bread is how you can work for justice and live out our Catholic faith. For questions contact Charlene Brown, Carolyn Borden Collins, Wes Fullen, Juana Hostin or Felicia McGimpsey.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN WORKSHOP & FINGERPRINTING will be available at St. Dominic on Sunday Nov. 7 after 11:30 Mass for all who wish to volunteer with PSR, Teen Spirit and other parish youth activities. If you spend any time around our children, you must complete this requirement! Please contact Charlene Brown, Director of Religious Education, at dre.sdshrsj@gmail.com or leave a message at the parish office, 614-252-5926, ext. 205

Hello Family, It is that time of the year, but first I would like to thank you for your contributions and participation for the Thanksgiving baskets last year. Even in the midst of our pandemic, you all still came through and we were able to supply Thanksgiving baskets/bags for over 250 people. I do not remember making an announcement but it was a success as always. We were able to give extra food to a pantry. How awesome is God? All the Time!!! Please read the flyer in the bulletin to see what is needed. Thank you again. Love and blessings,
Bunny Neal

Come and See Weekend at the Pontifical College Josephinum The Pontifical College Josephinum, in Columbus, Ohio, has scheduled a "Come and See" Live-In weekend for November 4-6, 2021. The weekend has been set aside to allow young men (high school juniors, seniors, and college-aged students) to visit the seminary for a few days. Live-In participants will experience seminary prayer life, classes, communal worship, and interaction with current seminarians, faculty and staff. Live-In weekends include introductory presentation on discernment, student life, and the college seminary formation program.

The weekend begins with arrival at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 4, and concludes with departure at noon on Saturday, November 6. All meals and recreation are included. There is no charge to participate. For more information, contact Fr. Hahn, Director of Vocations, 614-221-5565, whahn@columbuscatholic.org or your parish priest.

REAL PRESENCE, REAL FUTURE reflections: Serving by Letting Go
Deacon Jeff Carpenter, St. Bernadette, Lancaster

The apostles today are thinking about heaven but misapplying earthly logic. Like the Apostles, we too can crave places of honor and earthly things. But with God, we need to let go of these, especially as we plan for the future of our diocese. God, infinite source of love and dignity, is fully present to those who turn to him so to be His servants in this life. Serving God offers far more dignity than efforts to be earthly kings. We experience this dignity with the Real Presence in the Eucharist, through which, even with the tiniest fragments, we receive full body, blood soul and divinity of Christ.
