Community Garden Update

Thank the Lord for the rain! Did you notice that the trees at the rear of the garden were trimmed for more sunshine and open views between Neighborhood House and The garden? The vegetables have been underperforming even though the Neighborhood House Summer Campers under the leadership of Mr. Johnson and Ms. Burkes have been faithful watered. The heat has been good apparently for the tomatoes, okra and peppers though! Some pesky insects have loved eating away the greens, green beans and cabbages. Since no chemicals are used in our garden, they have been busy! Anyone have any suggestions to keep them at bay? Dishwashing soap and vinegar have been tried. The campers ended their last week with make your own salads with tomatoes and peppers from the garden. Lettuce, carrots and cucumbers were added. Everyone agreed the salads were tasty. Some of the kids were trying these for a first time! Thank you Mr. Cecil Douglas for letting us have our salad in the Parish Center. We had a donation from Mike Iziak of tomato cages and Tiana helped to plant a second planting of greens and cabbage since the can withstand the cold weather that is coming in the fall. Let’s hope the onslaught of insects decline by the time they begin to mature! I look forward to seeing how the sweet potatoes do! Only the vine will be above ground and when it is time we’ll have to dig up the potatoes under the ground. The carrots and beets are also root veggies so we have to wait for that as well. I hope they will be worth the wait! Oh, well! Patience is one of the Fruits of the Spirit! Linda Waddell

The school bells are ringing. This could be a trigger for your motherhood if such occasion is cause for you to remember the additional child who might have been dancing out the door. If these traditional motherhood experiences come into your mind, it is normal and often an opportunity to be with other mothers who share the same inner longing and sadness. Abortion does have a memory. As the healing love of Jesus enters your heart and relationships, you will come to seek the intercessory prayer of your child who now rests in eternal joy. We welcome you on this journey. You are not alone. Bethesda Healing Ministry: 2nd and 4th Mondays of every month.
