Community Garden Notes

The summer storms have definitely helped plants shoot up in the garden. Unfortunately the weeds are competing for first place in claiming garden space. But, we are fortunate to have had help from May Banks and her granddaughter, Drema with pulling those persistent weeds. Kenny Bosley has used his pruning shears to shape and trim the bushes all along the fence and even some overhanging tree branches. Tina Moody has been helping out too with planting flowers along the fence. The canna lilies that are sprouting were planted by John and Ann Seren. Gabriel Levert returned for his second summer earning Community Service Credits by working in the garden weekly. He is the grandson of Imogene Williams and will be a senior at Bishop Hartley High School this fall. Thanks to the pruning, we can better see the sculpture on the North side of the garden. It depicts a character from Aminah Robinson’s children book, A Street Called Home. The Ragaman was an actual individual who lived and roamed the Eastside neighborhood. St. Dominic is privileged to have one of the many characters. Mt. Vernon AME Church and the Ward YMCA are two others.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING TO MAKE THE JOURNEY INTO THE CATHOLIC FAITH, CONTACT KIM COLEMAN AT 614 266-6729.

The Altar Rosary Society and the St. Dominic Rosary Group will sponsor the 3rd annual St. Dominic Day, on Monday August 8, 2016 from 3-5pm in the yard behind the rectory. We will gather for prayer at 3pm, with a focus on the welfare and protection of our children as they prepare to return to school.

Games and lunch will be provided. Please bring a lawn chair, sunhat and a friend.

Columbus History –Poindexter Village

On Sunday, August 14, 2016 from 1-4pm. the Columbus Historical Society invites you to visit our newest exhibit “Poindexter Village: A Portrait in Stories” at our museum within COSI—333 W. Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215

This exhibition documents the history, growth, life and development of the area previously known as “Blackberry Patch”. It incorporates the values that the community and faith leaders have promoted within the community.

MT CARMET HOSPICE. As the only Catholic hospice in Columbus and the surrounding communities, Mount Carmel Hospice and Palliative Care Service invites you to join us in serving those who are at end of life. In the spirit of the Gospel, our volunteers help their neighbors who are at end-of-life. If you are interested in becoming a hospice volunteer whether at the bedside or behind the scenes, join us for a special panel discussion. The session can help you find the best way to serve your community at end-of-life. Please join us on August 9 from 1 pm to 2pm or August 16 from 6 pm to 7 pm at the Mount Carmel Hospice and Palliative Care Center. Register by calling 234-LIFE (5433).
