BREAD Investment Drive

The BREAD Organization is a coalition of churches, mosques, and synagogues working together for social justice in our community. It takes money to fix community problems, so we are asking you for freewill donations during fellowship at the Parish Center after Sunday Masses during the month of July.

Your donations will help the organization continue its work of fixing problems in Columbus and Franklin County. If you're not familiar with BREAD, the name stands for Building Responsibility, Equality and Dignity. St. Dominic has been a member for about five or six years, and your donations will be given on behalf of this parish.

The organization chooses a community issue like housing, mental health care, or jobs, researches solutions and best practices for addressing that issue, develops a solution that works best in our community, then takes that proposal to local government and business leaders for action.

Some recent successes include getting rid of rundown vacant housing through the Franklin County Land Bank; a new Clubhouse International program for people with mental illness; and Franklin County's Affordable Housing Trust Fund that has helped develop over 8-thousand units of affordable housing.

BREAD is very economical with both time and money, and is very effective at getting results. BREAD is a great investment too-for every $1 invested in BREAD, we've leveraged $53 dollars back into the community. So when you see our donation jar in the parish center, please be generous! Checks can be made out to St. Dominic with BREAD in the memo.

See Wesley Fullen or Juana Hostin if you have question or want to work for social justice in Franklin County.

Community Garden Notes

The summer storms have definitely helped plants shoot up in the garden. Unfortunately the weeds are competing for first place in claiming garden space. But, we are fortunate to have had help from May Banks and her granddaughter, Drema with pulling those persistent weeds. Kenny Bosley has used his pruning shears to shape and trim the bushes all along the fence and even some overhanging tree branches. Tina Moody has been helping out too with planting flowers along the fence. The canna lilies that are sprouting were planted by John and Ann Seren. Gabriel Levert returned for his second summer earning Community Service Credits by working in the garden weekly. He is the grandson of Imogene Williams and will be a senior at Bishop Hartley High School this fall. Thanks to the pruning, we can better see the sculpture on the North side of the garden. It depicts a character from Aminah Robinson's children book, A Street Called Home. The Ragaman was an actual individual who lived and roamed the Eastside neighborhood. St. Dominic is privileged to have one of the many characters. Mt. Vernon AME Church and the Ward YMCA are two others.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING TO MAKE THE JOURNEY INTO THE CATHOLIC FAITH, CONTACT KIM COLEMAN AT 614 266-6729.

The Altar Rosary Society and the St. Dominic Rosary Group will sponsor the 3rd annual St. Dominic Day, on Monday August 8, 2016 from 3-5pm in the yard behind the rectory. We will gather for prayer at 3pm, with a focus on the welfare and protection of our children as they prepare to return to school.

Games and lunch will be provided. Please bring a lawn chair, sunhat and a friend.
