Garden Angels have been sighted in the garden! City Year workers were busy at work weeding and planting. Mr. Johnson from Neighborhood House brings his summer students to water and learn about how to care for plants and find out how vegetables grow. Hopefully we'll have a good growing season and they can taste new vegetable that they helped to tend. Many thanks to other Garden Angels! Cecelia Veal, Dino and Erik Haw have pitched in to do some weeding and Joe Banks has been mowing inside the garden to keep paths open for gardeners. Markus keeps the garden's perimeter and church grounds groomed. Al and Judy Voll who work at the Community Kitchen on Monday have brought more garden gloves from Costco donations. Cecil Douglas has donations of tools and gloves that he has given me so anyone who wants to work will have the tools to do so. Parishioners and neighboring community members have commented on the progress of the garden so far this year. Some of the vegetables peeking up are tomatoes, peppers, onions greens squash and cucumbers. Green thumbs are always welcome to lend a hand or share some garden knowledge! I usually come Mondays and Wednesday mornings but weeders and waters are always needed any day or evening that fits in your schedule. To All Teen Spirit members!

Since many families are celebrating Father's Day today, Teen Spirit will meet next Sunday, June 26, after the 11:30 mass, rather than today.

Thank you.

2016 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Honorary chair Urban and Shelley Meyer, and your parish representatives Juana and Michael Hostin, ask you to support the Columbus Diocese with a donation to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. The parish goal is $22, 309.74. Last year, there were 77 donors to the BAA. Payments can be made with a one-time donation or spread over 10 months by cash, check, credit debit or electronic transfer. No donation is too small, and any amount over the parish goal comes back to St. Dominic. Because we exceeded our goal in 2015, St. Dominic received a refund check in the amount of $4,406.33. Return your pledge envelope in the offertory basket. The last day to accept pledges and one-time donations is June 26. Let's be His hope to others. Amen
